

UPDATE

As recommended by Department of Fisheries and Oceans Canada (DFO), the Committee for the Regional Assessment of Offshore Wind Development in Nova Scotia has changed the name of the “Eastern Shore” Potential Future Development Area (PFDA), to the “French Bank” PFDA. The reason for the change is to identify its location more accurately, based on the PFDA’s geographic location on French Bank.